Wise Women ... Wiser Daughters

Do you want to be a girl with confidence? ... "His Revolutionary Love" will do just that, showing you a side of Jesus that you may have never seen before.

Brenda Warner, Women of Faith Speaker and co-author of First Things First with Super Bowl-winning husband Kurt Warner

As a Proverbs 31 speaker and author, Lynn's passion is empowering generations; wise women raising wiser daughters. As a teen, Lynn discovered that love from a guy, be it a dad, boyfriend or husband, could never fill the love gap she had. When the radical love of Jesus' revolutionized the way she saw herself and Jesus, it brought a confidence leading to wise choices. This is the truth that she shares with teen girls and women across the country through her speaking and writing.

A wife to Greg for over 25 years and the mother of three, Lynn loves the mountains, well worn sweatshirts and anything combining chocolate and peanut butter.

His Revolutionary Love

"His Revolutionary Love" Conference:

His Revolutionary Love is not just a conference, it's a movement.

"His Revolutionary Love" brings both fun and faith to teen girls, empowering them with confidence leading to wise choices. This conference can be either a one day or Friday night/Saturday event. The foundational session is based on Lynn's book, "His Revolutionary Love; Jesus' Radical Pursuit of You":

His Revolutionary Love: Jesus' Radical Pursuit of You

Everyone around her seems to have "someone"; she wants that too! But has she ever thought that that someone might actually be Jesus? Lynn shares:

- How your teen can know that He is flipped-out madly in love with them
- How Jesus replaces loneliness, rejection or pain for acceptance and approval
- Way the power of love leads to a pure life
- Why purity isn't just a physical thing; it's a heart thing

Additional session options include:

Gutsy God Girl

IPOD's. FaceBook. Guys. Is that all there is? What if your teen let the Creator of everything be the author of her life? Lynn will challenge her to:

- Model other teens who are doing big things for God NOW!
- Partner with God to write her own great adventure
- Find tools to get her own adventure started

He Loves Me; He Loves Me Not –

He caught your eye. You'd like to date. Now what? Are there rules to this thing? Using examples from Hollywood to the Bible, Lynn gives some insights into what makes or breaks a good relationship. Together let's cover:

- Boundaries that help to take a good relationship to great
- What is a true knight in shining armor
- How to know if "he's the one"
- How to honor God if she chooses to date

Beyond FaceBook Friends

Using props to help the teaching stick, Lynn teaches how to create true friendships that can last a lifetime! In this session girls will learn:

- How Jesus demonstrated real friendship
- How to avoid "girl drama"
- Tools for knowing how to make a good friend
- How to determine if she is a true friend

Q&A with Lynn

Throughout the conference, girls are encouraged to ask any question they have anonymously and put them in the God box. Lynn then spends 35 minutes answering these questions in a way that is helpful and candid.

For a "His Revolutionary Love" conference, it's not just the conference that Lynn brings. She can supply everything you need to put it together: schedule, games, messages, give aways, even t-shirts. She also offers free of charge a leadership guide for those who would like to follow up the conference by going through "His Revolutionary Love" with a small group. This is a perfect way to solidify the truths of this conference. The leadership guide gives all the details you need to start a group with practical tools and provoking questions.

Thank you for speaking truth with both compassion and boldness; to not be afraid to tell it like it is and lay down what a strong woman of God should look like. God used you to bring much conviction concerning my personal walk with Christ. God surely captured my heart this weekend!

Thank you for telling girls of all backgrounds, colors, ages and lifestyles that Jesus loves them like crazy and that they are beautiful. There is such power in your words that have been given from the Lord. I have to constantly be reminded of who I am in Christ; that I am cherished and loved, that I am beautiful and precious and that I am not worthless or useless but a life that has been radically transformed!
